

M. & N. A. CONFERENCE
IS HELD IN ST. LOUIS

Rehiring of Union Men Discussed By Brotherhood Men and Festus J. Wade.

St. Louis, Oct. 10.—Officials of the railroad brotherhoods of Harrison, Ark., several international officials and Festus J. Wade conferred here today on the subject of rehiring union employees of the defunct Missouri and North Arkansas Railroad who were on strike when the road suspended operations recently.

The object of the conference, it was explained, was to ascertain the cost of rehiring for resumption of operations. It was agreed that Mr. Wade go to Chicago tomorrow and confer further with international brotherhood officials.

The road, which extends from Joplin to Helena, Ark., a distance of about 350 miles, suspended operations by federal court orders, because of lack of funds. Mr. Wade a former receiver of the road, represents local interests which invested approximately $10,000,000 in the project.

W. H. LYNCH VISITS SCHOOLS

Prof. W. H. Lynch, visitor of the Southwest Teachers' College, spent Monday in Monett. He visited the high school, being accompanied by H. A. Gardner, president of the board. Mr. Lynch was very favorably impressed with the work in the high school. He especially commended the work in the domestic science department, declaring that it was the equal of that department in the Springfield high school. He was struck with the morale of the high school and the very fine school spirit displayed. He says our high school is one of the very best in Southwest Missouri.

Mr. Lynch went from here to McDonald County, where he will visit the town and rural schools.

DEATH CLAIMS FOUR

YEAR OLD SON

SOCIAL AFFAIRS

Miss Gillioz a Hostess.

Miss Alma Gillioz was a very charming hostess at a party on Saturday evening at her home, 416 Frisco avenue. The evening was pleasantly passed in various ways, one of the feature entertainments being the game "spoof." Miss Blanche Gillioz received the prize and Miss Bernice Smerdon was consoled.

At the conclusion of the evening a delicious lunch consisting of sandwiches, salad, pickles and coffee was served to the following: Misses Ruby Waite, Ruby Lane, Ruby Dickerson, Charlotte Bradford, Lester Cox, Jessie Bell Wilson, Freda Kaase, Ruth Hobbs, Bernice Smerdon, Elizabeth Keirsey, Gladys Jeffries, Winnifred Taylor, Ada Riggs, Faye Baum, Blanche and Marie Gillioz, Bess Morris, of Springfield; Mrs. Harley Wagner, Mrs. Clyde Combe, Mrs. Wm. E. Rogers.

Mrs. Whitlatch Entertains Sunday School Class.

On Friday evening, October 7th, at the Methodist Episcopal church, Mrs. C. E. Whitlatch delightfully entertained her Sunday school class, with a party. A short business session was held, and business of the class discussed, and the remainder of the evening was passed in a social way.

Those who were there were: Misses Ada Riggs, Ruby Waite, Jessie Bell Wilson, Alma Gillioz, Elizabeth Keirsey, Mazie Amber, Gladys Jeffries; Mrs. Wm. E. Rogers; Messrs. Leslie Mason, Jim Gilkey, Norman Trimble, Lloyd McKenney, Alby Anderson, Frank Kyler, and the teacher, Mrs. Whitlatch.

Family Reunion.

On Sunday, October 9th, a family reunion was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Pitts, 102 Walnut street, South Monett. A delicious dinner was served at 12 o'clock and the afternoon was spent in music and social conversation. Those enjoying the affair were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Frear and family, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. E. Rogers, and T. D. Pitts and family.

Euzelian Class Meeting.

The Euzelian class of the First Baptist church met Sunday evening at 6:30 o'clock to organize a B. Y. P. U., but owing to the illness of the pastor, C. F. Whitlock, the Young People's Union was not organized. There were fifty-three present at the meeting. Special songs were practiced, and the young people will have charge of the music at the evening service next Sunday.

The class recently organized with an enrollment of twenty members, and has grown until their membership list has reached thirty-six.

A class meeting will be held on Friday evening in the home of Miss Ethel Poole, No. 109 Broadway.

ARKANSAS WOMEN IN AUTOMOBILE ACCIDENT

Car Turns Over Near Bridge South of Monett. No Serious Injuries.

Two women, making an overland trip from Winslow, Ark., to Springfield were victims of an automobile accident about 4 o'clock Monday afternoon. In attempting to make the turn after crossing the bridge on the left, south of the Frisco tracks on Central avenue, Mrs. Williams, driving, lost control of the car and after running through a barbed wire fence into a field, it completely turned over. J. L. Jeffries, who witnessed the accident, took the women into town where Dr. L. H. Ferguson administered to their wounds. Mrs. Williams received several cuts and bruises, and the other woman, whose name was not learned, escaped with slight injuries.

The car was brought to town later in the afternoon.

The women left Tuesday morning for Springfield.
